

God is in the Midst

In this issue, Gordon provides the backstory on how COVID-19 led KidZ at Heart to sense an invitation from God to begin a brand new ministry to families. And don't miss our other updates. We hope they encourage you to see how God is still working in hearts and lives around the world.

From the Heart of KidZ at Heart

Our theme verses for the year are an important part of our focus. How can we walk with God and keep our eyes on Jesus, following our faithful Father? Read More...

Africa Spotlight

Our National Training Network leaders in Africa are doing a phenomenal job staying in touch with their training teams and participants during this unprecedented time.

Asia Spotlight

Our team leaders and mobilizers are already hard at work connecting with hosts and setting potential dates for training for fall 2020. Read More...

Europe Spotlight

We have connected with a few of our communities in Europe to see how they are doing. What we hear is a blessing: they are continuing to practice what they are learning through the Transforming KidZ Ministry training. Read More...

Latin America Spotlight

Every Friday at 8pm, the National Coordinator for El Salvador (Ileana) and the Regional Director for Latin America (Carolina) are inviting training participants to join in on a group chat over WhatsApp. Read More...

North America Spotlight

After the prayer and preparation, getting the details done, conference calls completed and the trainers, hosts and participants were all back home, the question came silently: was it all worth it? Read More...

Prayer

We have three important requests. Would you pray with us? Read More...

KidZ at Home

KidZ at Heart is addressing this “new normal” with resources to help parents and other household leaders capitalize on the extra time we have with children. Read More...

In These Times

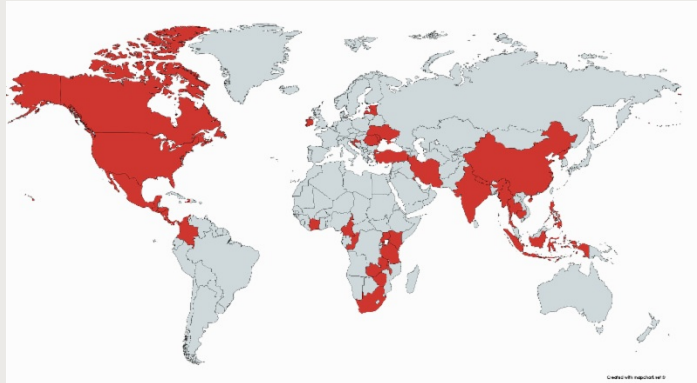

How are we navigating this extraordinary time with Jesus and with each other? Can we share with each other, and help ease each other’s burdens? Read More...
